ANNEXURE-II

STATEMENT OF IMPUTATIONS OF MISCONDUCT IN SUPPORT OF ARTICLES OF CHARGES FRAMED AGAINST THE CHARGED RETIRED JOINT SUB-REGISTRAR, SRI G.V.K.MURTHY.

CHARGE-1

That the said Sri G.V.K.Murthy, Retired Joint Sub-Registrar had, while functioning as Joint Sub-Registrar, Narasapuram, during the period from 01-10-2014 to 09-07-2019, allowed the registration of document No.18/2019 of Book-4 for registration causing deficit amounts of revenue of Rs.1,24,040/-. This was revealed during the course of Internal Audit conducted by the District Registrar(MV & AU), Eluru, for the period from February 2019 to July 2019 vide Internal Audit Report No.23 of 2020.

Sri Thanuku Manikanth and others executed a General Power of Attorney in favour of Sri K.Lakshminararyana for managing the schedule property of the document. The said General Power of Attorney was given to the member of other than family. The General Power was given for managing the property; for getting plans from the Municipal authorities; mortgaging the property etc.,

When Power of Attorney is given to a member of other than family for construction on development of, or sale or transfer (in any manner whatsoever) of, any immovable property is chargeable under Article 42(g) of Schedule I-A to Indian Stamp Act @ 1% on the value of the document.

"Transfer" means any sale, gift, exchange, mortgage with or without possession, lease. Hence, the mortgage comes under 'Transfer of property.'

One of the acts given through the present General Power of Attorney under the charge is the mortgaging of property, which comes under the meaning of 'Transfer of immovable property'. Further, the Power of attorney was given to a member of other than the family. Hence, the stamp duty @ 1% is to be charged for the schedule property of the document under Article 42(g) of Schedule I-A to Indian Stamp Act. The value of the present document is Rs.1,05,06,000/- Accordingly, the stamp duty is to be charged is Rs.1,05,060/- The stamp duty already paid for the document is Rs.20/- Accordingly, the deficit stamp duty is Rs.1,05,040/-

And as per G.O.Ms.No.463 Revenue(REGN-I) Department, dated 17-08-2013, the Registration Fee for Power of attorney given to sell/construct/develop/transfer of immovable property is to be levied at the rate of 0.5% (Subject to a minimum of Rs.1,000/-and maximum of Rs. 20,000/-). The value of the present document is Rs.1,05,06,000/- and accordingly the maximum Registration Fee of Rs.20,000/- is to be levied. The Registration Fee already levied for the document is Rs.1,000/- Accordingly, the short levy of registration fee is Rs.19,000/-

The loss of revenue for the document is Rs.1,24,040/-.(i.e., deficit stamp duty of Rs.1,05,040/- and short levy of registration fee of Rs.19,000/-)

Thus, the Charged Retired Joint Sub-Registrar by his above mentioned act has exhibited lack of integrity, devotion to duty and conduct unbecoming of a Government Servant and caused for loss of revenue of Rs.1,24,040/- to Government exchequer and violated Article 42(g) of Schedule I A to Indian Stamp Act,1899 and thereby contravened Andhra Pradesh Civil Services (Conduct) Rules,1964.

CHARGE-2

That the said Sri G.V.K.Murthy, Retired Joint Sub-Registrar had, while functioning as Joint Sub-Registrar, Narasapuram, during the period from 01-10-2014 to 09-07-2019, allowed the registration of document No.1007/2019 of Book-1 for registration causing deficit amount of revenue of Rs.34,150/-. This was revealed during the course of Internal Audit conducted by the District Registrar

Contd.,2

(MV & AU), Eluru, for the period from February 2019 to July 2019 vide Internal Audit Report No.23 of 2020.

The document under charge is a Ratification deed for the previously registered document of Gift (Settlement) deed No.4874/2005. The Gift (Settlement) deed No.4874/2005 was executed by Sri P.Panakala Rao in favour of his brother Sri P.Rangaiah Naidu. The stamp duty is to be paid for the Gift (Settlement) deeds in favour of family members @ 1% on the value of the schedule property. Accordingly, 1% of stamp duty of Rs.6,850/- was paid on the schedule property of Rs.6,85,000/-

Through the Ratification deed under charge was executed by the son and daughters of Sri P.Panakala Rao (i.e., the executant of the settlement deed of 4874/2005). The executants of the Ratification deed are the nephews of Sri P.Rangaiah Naidu (the donor of the settlement deed of 4874/2005). Hence, the Sri P.Rangaiah Naidu is other than family members to the executants as per the Explanation provided under Article 49 of Schedule I A to Indian Stamp Act,1899. Had the executants of the ratification deed executed the said Gift (Settlement) deed No.4874/2005 along with their father, the Gift (Settlement) deed should have been charged with the stamp duty @ 6 % as per Article 49(b) of Schedule I A to Indian Stamp Act, 1899. And the stamp duty of Rs.41,000/- @ 6% would have been paid for the Gift(Settlement) deed. But the parties paid the stamp duty of Rs.100/- for the rectification deed in the shape of Non-Judicial Stamp Papers.

The charged Joint Sub-Registrar had not insisted the parties of the Ratification deed to pay the difference of the stamp duty of Rs.34,250/- (i.e., 41,000/- minus 6850/-)deducting the value of the non-judicial stamps. Accordingly, there is short levy of stamp duty of Rs.34,150(i.e., Rs.34,250-100) for the document of Ratification deed No.1007/ 2019.

Thus, the Charged Retired Joint Sub-Registrar by his abovementioned act has exhibited lack of integrity, devotion to duty and conduct unbecoming of a Government Servant and caused for loss of revenue of Rs.34,150/- to Government exchequer and violated Section 4 of Indian Stamp Act,1899 and thereby contravened Andhra Pradesh Civil Services (Conduct) Rules,1964.

CHARGE-3

That the said Sri G.V.K.Murthy, Retired Joint Sub-Registrar had, while functioning as Joint Sub-Registrar, Narasapuram during the period from 01-10-2014 to 09-07-2019, allowed registration of the document No.2502/2019 styled as family settlement executed by 8 parties settling the properties worth of Rs.1,05,06,000/- The document was presented before the Charged Retired Joint Sub-Registrar for registration. He admitted it to registration and registered the document on 07-05-2019. As per the recitals of the document, some extent of the schedule properties of the document was ancestral property and the remaining extent of the schedule properties of the document was acquired through the Settlement documents Nos.1829/2009 & 5642/2018. An extent of 31.25 square yards was settled in favour of 7 parties i.e., 2 to 8 parties. The said 7 parties intended to construct an apartment themselves without giving the property to the developer for development. The said 7 parties, through the present document No.2502/2019, divided the schedule properties equally among themselves. The document was treated as Family Settlement deed. Accordingly, the duties were levied.

During the course of Annual Inspection for the years 2019-2020 to 2020-2021 conducted by the District Registrar (MV & AU), Eluru the District Registrar(MV & AU) remarked that the present document is to be treated as Conveyance and it is chargeable stamp duty under Article 20 of Schedule I-A to Indian stamp Act, since the schedule property was developed by the parties themselves without developer vide Procgs.No. CCRA-1/234/2012, Dt. 12-04-2016 of Chief Controlling Revenue Authority and Director General of Registration and Stamps, A.P., Hyderabad. And the District Registrar(MV&AU) accordingly pointed out a loss of revenue of Rs.2,47,415 towards stamp duty and Rs.17,000/- towards registrationfee.

The Joint Sub-Registrar, Narsaoyram submitted his reply contesting the remark of the District Registrar (MV & AU), Eluru. But the contest of the Joint Sub-Registrar, Narasapuram was not accepted by the Deputy Inspector General(R&S), Eluru range, Eluru, since there are no valid grounds to consider the reply of the Joint Sub-registrar. Accordingly, there is a total loss of revenue of Rs.2,64,415/- to Government exchequer.

Thus, the Charged Retired Joint Sub-Registrar by his above mentioned act has exhibited lack of integrity, devotion to duty and conduct unbecoming of a Government Servant and caused for loss of revenue of Rs. 2,64,415/- to Government exchequer and violated Procgs. No.CCRA-1/234/2012, Dated 12-04-2016 of Chief Controlling Revenue Authority and Director General of Registration and Stamps, A.P., Hyderabad and thereby contravened Andhra Pradesh Civil Services (Conduct) Rules,1964.

The document was presented before the Charged Retired Joint Sub-Registrar for registration. He admitted it to registration and registered the document on 27-06-2019. The schedule properties of the document were acquired by the parties through a Settlement document and through a DAWA decreed by Sub-Ordinate Court, Narasapuram. And thus the schedule properties are self acquired properties of the parties. The document was treated as Partition deed. Accordingly, the duties were levied.

During the course of Annual Inspection for the years 2019-2020 to 2020-2021 conducted by the District Registrar(MV & AU), Eluru, the District Registrar(MV & AU) offered the remark that the present document is a Partition deed dividing the properties by the parties unequally. The properties are self acquired properties of the parties, since the parties acquired the properties through a Settlement deed and through a joint Decree issued by the Court. As per the clarification issued by the Commissioner and Inspector General of Registration and Stamps in his Procgs.No.S2/5968/2010, Dt.16-04-2012, the stamp duty shall be levied on the value of the separated share under Article 40 of Schedule I A to Indian Stamp Act and one share is exempted from the payment of duty. Hence, each share has to be treated and stamp duty has to be levied on V.S.S. Accordingly the District Registrar (MV & AU) pointed out loss of revenue of Rs.61,720/- towards stamp duty.

Further, the A.G. Audit Party, during the course of local audit, pointed out that the executant parties of the document acquired the properties through settlement deed and hence each executant is entitled to equal share. The audit party pointed out the loss of revenue of loss of revenue of Rs.4,51,690/- towards stamp duty and registration fee, as per the Procgs.No.CCRA1/16634/2010, Dt.26-04-2013 vide Local Audit Report of the Accountant General(Audit), Andhra Pradesh of Vijayawada No. PAG(Audit)/AP/AMG-III/RS Edit/3-66/2022-23/420, Dated 18-10-2022.

The document under charge is styled as a partition deed. Through the partition deed under charge, the brothers and sister divided the properties. The properties were acquired by the parties jointly through as Settlement deed No.4058/1965. Hence, all they would have equal joint right over the property.

A deed of partition necessarily presupposes that more than one person has a joint right over the property and basing on such right, property is divided among the parties. According to section 45 of the Transfer of Property Act in respect of presumption of equity, in theabsence of the specific mention about the shares of the co-owners in a deed (in the present case Settlement deed), all co-owners will be treated as having equal shares over the properties there under. If the properties are divided in unequal shares, the excess portion of property falling to the schedule of one co-owner can be treated as release only vide Procgs.No.CCRA1/1663412010, Dated: 26,04.2013.

Accordingly, the remark of the audit party is accepted.

The Joint Sub-Registrar, Narsaoyram submitted his reply contesting the remark of the District Registrar (MV & AU), Eluru. But the contest of the Joint Sub-Registrar was not accepted.

And the Joint Sub-Registrar, Narasapuram submitted his 1st reply contesting the remark of the A.G. Audit party to the District Registrar, West Godavari District for onward transmission to the A.G.A.P., Vijayawada. But the 1st reply of the Joint Sub-Registrar, Narasapuram was not accepted by the District Registrar, West Godavari District. And he (i.e., the District Registrar) submitted his 1st reply to the A.G., A.P., Vijayawada accepting the para. Further, he issued notice to the parties concerned under Section 41-A of Indian Stamp Act,1899 for recovery of loss revenue.

Thus, the Charged Retired Joint Sub-Registrar by his above mentioned act has exhibited lack of integrity, devotion to duty and conduct unbecoming of a Government Servant and caused for loss of revenue of Rs.4,51,690/- to Government exchequer and violated Procgs.No.CCRA1/16634/2010, Dt.26-04-2013 of Chief Controlling Revenue Authority and Commissioner and Inspector General of Registration & Stamps, A.P., Hyderabad and thereby contravened Andhra Pradesh Civil Services (Conduct) Rules,1964.
